TESTIMONIALS

“Deborah is a valued and trusted colleague. Her participation and ability to provide accurate, fact based information was vital to our programs success during a difficult transition to a new and dynamic supply chain solution for a major national retailer. I would heartily recommend her to any employer seeking a true professional who can make a difference.”

“Deborah consistently delivers quality while balancing the demands of many coworkers. Her thought leadership, problem solving skills and analytical tool box are constantly sought out because of the value and trust she earned with her business partners. Deborah is passionate about doing a great job and delivering great results.”

“Deborah consistently demonstrated an ability not only to perceive the critical path to achieving results, but the personal knowledge, agility and collaborative leadership capability to overcome the inevitable obstacles and consistently deliver cost-effective customer focused solutions. She has listening skills that enable her to understand client need and the moxie, sense of urgency and smarts to keep large and small projects in forward motion to successful completion.”

“Her ability to apply wisdom from one business scenario to another is extraordinary and a rarity in the business world today.”
